

United Wireless and Southwest Distributing added to the Showdown

Story By: Trenton Berry / RacinDirt.com

4/13/12 – (Springfield, MO) With the Showdown just over two weeks away, anticipation is at a fever pitch for the biggest Dirt Late Model race west of Missouri. The Great American Dirt Track is where all the action will take place with $12,000 going directly to the winner and $1,200 guaranteed simply to start the feature. “It’s a fantastic place to race, I wish we could hurry up and get there,” stated Eric Turner, who will be driving for Pannell Motorsports at the event. “I’ve been to every one of the big shows out there, and Patrick continues to build it and make it better, not only for the drivers, but fans too. It’s one of the best races of the year in my opinion. ”

Action will get underway with a $1,500 to win Showdown Preview on Friday April 27th. The evening's show is made possible by United Wireless. Founded in 2005, Dodge City, KS based United Wireless strives to provide customers with the best service and support possible. Find out more about them by visiting their website, unitedwireless.com. The big show will take place Saturday April 28th as Southwest Distributing joins United Wireless to present the Showdown. It will be a 50 lap shootout for $12,000 to win, with an A Main purse in excess of $50,000. Southwest Distributing supplies Miller and Coors Products for Western Kansas. “It’s great to have partners like United Wireless and Southwest Distributing,” stated Track Owner Patrick Johnson. “They appreciate what we have going on at our track and see value in what we do. This is really a winning situation all the way around.”

Fans unable to attend will be able to listen to Saturday’s race live free of charge, via RacinDirt.com. Below is a preliminary list of drivers who have turned in a pre-entry form for the Showdown, verbalized their intent to compete or posted the race on their website schedule.
